POMMERENING NAMED HEAD OF THE EQUITY

Tittemore Follower is Easy Victor at Convention in Milwaukee

DAY ONE OF UPROAR

J. Weller Long Calls Tittemore Liar and Commotion Follows

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—E. C. Pommerening of Winnebago county, a faithful follower of J. N. Tittemore, was on Thursday elected president of the Wisconsin Union, American Society of Equity, at the annual convention being held here.

Pommerening was an easy victor over Joseph Houston, secretary of the organization and Judge D. O. Mahoney of Viroqua.

The result of the first informal ballot showed the following results: Pommerening 457, Houston 227; Hill 99; Mahoney 272, and Gallagher 36.

Houston then withdrew and the first formal ballot showed that his strength had switched to Pommerening. The count on this ballot was: Pommerening 788; Mahoney 397; Gallagher 32, and Hill 2.

S. E. Livingstone was elected vice president of the Equity Society today over Frank L. McGovern, on a count which gave Livingstone 985½ and McGowan 187½. The resolutions committee will report against merger with the Farm Bureau, its resolution in substance declaring against any form of affiliation with any other organization whereby the Equity Society will lose its identity. Another resolution commends the National Board of Farm organizations. A third favors a revision of the farm loan act. The convention approved the appointment of a legislative representative at Madison during the session of the legislature. The board of directors will select its agent.

Day of Uproar

The election followed an uproar over the adoption of the annual financial report. Judge Mahoney challenged the list of assets that were given in the report and said that instead of having a balance the organization was faced by a deficit.

The finance committee had just reported that it had found correct the statement submitted by Secretary-Treasurer Houston, but that the statement was somewhat confusing because of its arrangement, therefore the committee recommended monthly financial reports to be published in the Equity News.

Mr. Mahoney rose to question the real value of some of the items listed as assets, particularly one of $9,000 due from the national organization, intimating that this amount might not be worth more than 9 cents, so instead of a balance of about $5,000 Equity may be facing a deficit.

"What is the $9,000 due from the national union good for?" questioned Mr. Mahoney.

"One hundred cents on the dollar under our constitution and bylaws," replied Mr. Tittemore. "Every cent of it can be collected. Equity men are honest."

"Liar" Starts Near Riot

Mr. Tittemore went into a brief history of Equity's finances during which he said that J. Weller Long had asked that a receiver be appointed for the national union.

"You're a liar," came in a deep, heavy voice from the rear of the

AWAIT ARREST OF HAMON GIRL

Police Search for Clara Smith in Connection With Murder

(By the Associated Press)

ARDMORE, Okla.— Ardmore authorities marked time today and awaited word of the arrest of Miss Clara Smith of Ringling, Okla., sought in connection with the fatal shooting at a local hotel of Jake L. Hamon, Republican National committeeman of Oklahoma.

Miss Smith for whom there is a warrant charging assault with intent to kill, disappeared immediately after the shooting two weeks ago, and although trace of her has been found in several Texas cities authorities have been unable to arrest her.

Interest was divided today between the search for Miss Smith and the purpose of a visit to Texas by Frank L. Ketch, business manager of Hamon. At the time of the shooting, Ketch said the committeeman had been injured by the accidental discharge of a revolver he was cleaning.

E. W. Sallis, of Dallas, Tex., chauffeur, in a statement made at Dallas Wednesday declared he drove a young woman answering Miss Smith's description from there to Cisco, Texas, and that the woman told him she had shot a man in a hotel at Ardmore. She did not, according to the statement, give her own name or that of the man she had shot.

Pictures In Trunk

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—The contents of two trunks, said by police to be the property of Miss Clara Smith, sought in connection with the shooting of Jake L. Hamon, was being held at police headquarters today pending word from Ardmore, Okla., officials as to what disposition shall be made of them.

The trunks arrived here soon after the shooting of Hamon. Police said examination revealed only wearing apparel, a photograph of Hamon and one of Miss Smith, newspaper clippings and a book of verse. No writings of a personal nature were found.

XMAS PUDDING IS HIT BY DRY LAW

Old Fashioned "Flavors" Are Taboo by New Order

WASHINGTON — Flavoring of home-made Xmas plum pudding, mincemeat and brandied cherries and peaches with alcoholic spirits is a violation of the enforcement law and such foods are liable to seizure, it was stated today at the bureau of Internal revenue.

"Officials explained that under their interpretation of the enforcement act culinary products in which alcohol is an ingredient can be made only by manufacturers of food products who obtain a permit from the government, and that such products must contain less than one half of one per cent of alcohol.

They said such products shall not be used or sold on the premises, and that this barred the housewife from making Xmas foods with liquor in them. The regulations specifically state that permits shall not be issued to hotels and restaurants.

Will Ask Legislature For Dry Enforcement

Facilities for more strict enforcement of prohibition will be asked of the coming legislature, Commissioner Hazelberg has announced. When ample funds are provided extensive efforts will be made to clean up the illicit liquor traffic. Milwaukee which has been practically immune from molestation by prohibition agents will then have a clean-up, Mr. Hazelberg said. The $15,000 provided by the last legislature has not been sufficient to send out a large corps of deputies who can cover the state thoroughly, and as the result the prohibition activities have been curtailed.

Dance Causes War in Quiet Circles of Milton College

First Dance in 35 Years Splits Badger College Town Into Opposing Factions; School Editor Quits

MILTON, Wis.—A discussion of the propriety of dancing, precipitated by the first dance held here in 35 years, threatens disruption of Milton college circles. Arthur M. Mills, editor of the college paper, has resigned as a result of criticism following the ball. The college faculty, according to reports, is discussing legislation proposed to make participation in a dance an offense punishable by expulsion.

A dancing exhibit given by three girls in modified ballet costume at literary society meeting was denounced in chapel by W. C. Daland, president of the college, who said that he had heard only two comments, one that it was a "good leg show," and the other that it was a "bum leg show."

Milton college has 110 students, with 80 more in the musical courses. It is conducted under auspices of the Seventh Day Baptist church, but no sectarian tenets are taught, according to heads of the institution. Dancing, card playing and use of tobacco are rigidly prohibited.

The college is proud that, since its founding in 1844, the reputation of "unsurpassed moral and religious influences of the community about the institution has been maintained, and that the "village has always been free from the haunts of idleness and dissipation, and is still one of the safest in these respects where young men and women may attend school."

The trouble started when, under the stern principles of Puritanical ideals, President Daland rebuked young Editor Mills when in a college paper appeared the advertisement of a Janesville ice cream parlor with a small type line, "good dancing music." The words were censored.

The Thanksgiving day issue of the college paper carried a brief announcement of the Badger club dance. Mills was rebuked again, and when the students gathered in the chapel the first day of school after the dance there was tense interest. The hymns were sung and the bible selection read, followed by responsive reading and prayer.

Resignation Is Read.

Pres. Daland read Mills' resignations, one addressed to the president and one to the students.

VAN HISE A GRADUATE.

The late President Van Hise of the university was an alumnus of Milton. Other alumni and former students of the little school include J. B. Borden, state board of education; Samuel Plantz, president of Lawrence college; L. Dow Harvey, president of Stout Institute, and Lucius Heritage, university faculty.

"Pres. Daland has informed me very emphatically that there is no such thing as free press at Milton college," read the resignation addressed to the editor's fellow students. "If the Review, which in theory is 'published weekly by the students,' is to be absolutely controlled by the faculty and trustees, I propose to let the latter take charge of the publication from now on."

Pres. Daland addressed a stern denunciation of dancing directly to the girl students, who sit on one side of the chapel, apart from the men students.

"You young women do not realize into what channels you lead the imagination of young gentlemen," he earnestly told them. Referring to the dancing number given at the debating society program he said, "I heard two criticisms of the number. One youth said it was a good leg show; another said it was a bum leg show."

Smoking Is Banned.

Saying he would "clarify the atmosphere," the president continued, "Milton college cannot tolerate smoking, card playing, games of chance, and, my good people, Milton college can not and shall not tolerate dancing."

Some of the young people and some of the elders who sympathize with them declare there shall be dancing and that the college must surely countenance the pastime as an innocent amusement to be enjoyed even under the auspices of the school and in the large hall of the new campus gymnasium. Many of the students and many of the townspeople insist that dancing is wrong and irreconcilable to their moral beliefs.

The college social is given at the beginning of each semester. Instead of dancing several grand marches are executed.

HOOVER URGES CHILDREN AID

Appeals for Help in Saving Starving Tots in Europe

(By the Associated Press)

BOSTON—"I would rather have the American flag implanted in the hearts of Europe's children than flying over any citadel of victory," said Herbert Hoover today in presenting to business men and women here the obligation upon this country to supply the needs of 3,500,000 youthful sufferers by the war in Europe. The occasion marked the opening in New England of the nation-wide campaign for $23,000,000 estimated to be required to keep the children alive until next harvest.

"These are children of friend and enemy," said Mr. Hoover. "No matter what conflict there may be as to our views on our international relationships, this mass of children is no part of our contentions.

"The war collapsed among both allies and enemies in the face of the greatest famine in 200 years.

"These children are the obligation of every man and woman who has a penny more than his own children and his neighbor children require."

Leap From Moving Train With Loot; Loss is Not Estimated

BULLETIN
(By the Associated Press)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.— Registered mail unofficially valued at from $25,000 to $75,000 was stolen today by three bandits who held up the mail car. Postal authorities, cooperating with the police of Minneapolis and St. Paul in a search for bandits, announced that a federal reward of $1,000 had been offered for the arrest of each of the men. The postal officials would not make an estimate of the value of the 100 pieces of mail stolen.

It was learned this afternoon that in the car ahead of the mail car $500,000 in cash was being transported under guard of two men who had no knowledge of the mail robbery until the train reached the station here.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — One hundred pieces of registered mail were taken from the C., M. & St. P. passenger train No. 6, by two masked bandits shortly after 7 a. m. today, according to postal officials. The bandits ~~are believed to have~~ boarded the train at Hopkins, a short distance out of Minneapolis. When almost within the city limits they entered the mail car, bound the crew and jumped from the moving train with the registered mail.

No estimate of the loss has been made by either the postal authorities or the police.

The three clerks in the car, E. A. Anke, Minneapolis, and F. C. Tousley and A. E. Ostman, St. Paul, said they did not know the bandits were aboard the train until commanded to deliver the registered mail. The three were bound and were lying on the floor when the train stopped at the station.

Police started a search for the bandits, who are believed to have been picked up by an automobile after they jumped from the train.

DENIES ASKING FOR $15,000,000

Thorkelson Issues Statement on University Appropriation

"To say that the University of Wisconsin is asking the state for $15,000,000 for the next two years is a misstatement," declared H. J. Thorkelson, business manager of the university, to newspaper representatives yesterday.

Mr. Thorkelson's statement follows:

The university is asking the state for about 78 per cent of that amount. Almost $3,250,000, or 22 per cent, of the total amount that was recently announced as the biennial estimates for 1921-23 will be earned by the university or received from other sources than the state. Of the remainder, 35 per cent, or about $4,000,000, is for building construction.

In other words, the total biennial budget of $14,587,155 includes $1,921,000 to be received from student fees, $722,625 received from sales of farm products, dormitory room rent and board, sales of athletic tickets, fees for special services, and other sources, $427,860 from the federal government, $76,000 from interest, $2,000 from counties, and $30,000 from gifts. Under the system of revolving funds, all of those funds from other sources are paid into the state treasury and must be appropriated out for university use.

The proportion of university income to be derived from the state will, of course be unusually large to meet the estimates submitted for the next biennium. This is mainly due to the large building program and is a return to the proportions of former years before construction was curtailed by war conditions. Back in 1912-13, the state's share of university support was about 72 per cent because more than half a million a year was spent on new buildings. In succeeding years the state's share was gradually reduced, with smaller building programs, until in 1919-20, it was only 52 per cent, because but $66,000 was spent on buildings. The state hospital appropriation brought it back up to 71 per cent last year.

hall. It was the voice of Mr. Long himself.

The challenge "liar" turned the convention into a near riot which for a time threatened to end in fist fights.

Alex Rayburn, Pepin county, jumped to the stage, waving his arms and yelling:

"No man can call our president a liar and get away with it."

Mr. Tittemore pounded his gavel, but the uproar continued. By this time nearly every delegate in the hall was up and making threats. Many stood on chairs and shook their fists at Mr. Long.

"Long can't call me a liar because it takes a gentleman to do that," called out Mr. Tittemore as he pleaded for order.

Long Is Threatened.

Groups of delegates started to move in the direction of Mr. Long, evidently with the intention of forcing him to leave the hall.

Paul Schweinberg of Merrill, one of the older members, blocked the aisle to stop them. He waved them back with the words:

"Long isn't worth throwing out."

The convention voted to approve the financial statement as submitted by Mr. Houston.

The convention opposed the proposed merger with the Farm Bureau.

The fireworks of the evening session on Thursday resulted more from the proposed changes in the constitution than in the election of officers. The proposed increase in dues brought the first fight. The increase is $2.50 a year.

Officers of the national organization asked that the Wisconsin branch turn over $1.50 a year of the dues to that body instead of 30 cents, which resulted in an argument, led by Mahoney, who contended that the national body is doing little for the organization, stating that "nearly every state has gone over to some other farm organization." Mahoney mentioned Minnesota and immediately a number of delegates were on their feet asking for an explanation of the Minnesota branch action.

President Tittemore answered, stating that "the nonpartisan league got in control and raised h—l." He stated that the Minnesota branch will be held responsible for its share of the constitutional debts of the national body and announced that legal steps will be taken to force collection.

Slap At League

Two recommendations of the constitution committee were that "any member or organizer or officer of any other farmers' organization shall be barred from becoming an officer or a delegate to any convention of the Society of Equity," and that "any officer of Equity who shall become a candidate for any state office shall relinquish his Equity office and the office shall be declared vacant."

ALL REDUCED

The facts are these; Men's and young men's clothing dropped in wholesale price on Nov. 15th—but this reduction did not effect any clothing in this stock—for it was all bought and belonged to us many months before that date.

We however, disregarding every view to the contrary, have reduced our prices to conform to the new standard of clothing prices even tho' we have not enjoyed a single half hour of new costs as yet.

For a long time the consumer has had all he could do. For a long time we have been wishing and waiting for the opportunity of doing something really worth while for him. THAT DAY IS HERE and we are sacrificing this stock—without profit—and without regret.

We are taking our medicine before our time just to prove to our customers and prospective friends that the men back of this concern are strictly honorable and sincere—even when there's a bag of gold hanging in the balance.

Fruit Desserts

with real fruit in them—bottled

Jiffy-Jell is a real-fruit dessert. A condensed fruit juice in bottles comes within the package.

We crush the fruit, condense the juice and seal it. So you get real fruit in plenty—not a mere fruit taste. That is how it differs from the old-time quick desserts.

It is rich in fruit. We use, for instance, half a pineapple to flavor one dessert.

Jiffy-Jell comes ready-sweetened, and acidulated with a real fruit acid. Simply add boiling water, as directed on package, then the flavor from the vial, and let cool. A package serves six in mold form, or 12 if you whip the jell. All for 15 cents. The fruit alone would often cost you more.

Lime-fruit flavor makes a tart green salad jell. Mint makes a rich mint jell.

Millions now enjoy it. Try it once and you will never again serve the old-time jells.

10 Flavors in Glass Vials

Mint Lime Cherry Raspberry
Loganberry Strawberry Pineapple
Orange Lemon Coffee

A bottle in each package

Also Jiffy-Pie

Real lemon pie also comes in like form. The package contains everything necessary—sugar, egg yolk, powdered milk, corn starch and tapioca. The lemon essence—derived from lemon peel—comes in liquid form in a bottle.

Simply add water, as directed on package, cook a little and fill your pie. No cook, at any cost in time and trouble, could make a better lemon pie.

Also Jiffy Chocolate Pie complete—a perfect pie. Use for pudding too, and for cake filling.

We pay 30c

to let you try these two desserts. See offer below. Ask us for an order on your store.

Two Desserts Free

Jiffy Desserts best tell their own story. So we offer to buy you a package of each—Jiffy-Jell and Jiffy-Pie. They will cost us 30 cents, but we will pay your grocer just to let you know these dainties. Mail us the coupon and we will send you an order good at any store. But we only send one order to a family, of course. Accept this offer now.

It is a marvelous portrayal of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong limbs, steady nerves and firm muscles; fairly vibrating in animation—keen, alert, fresh, and spirited; with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Could Nature have taken you for her model? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your looks, your feelings and your condition with the general characteristics of this picture of the human body in perfect working order, all parts of which are sound, well organized and disposed, performing their functions freely, naturally.

If you fail in any single point of resemblance, you are not the picture of health. It's imperative, then, that you look to a means to rebuild your strength, energy and vigor—to bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.

LYKO

The Great General Tonic

Nothing is more efficacious as a rebuilder of exhausted nerves and physical forces than LYKO, the great general tonic. It tends to restore the worn-out tissues, replenish the blood, create new power and endurance, and revive the spirits of those who are weak, frail, languid and over-wrought as the result of sickness, excessive nervous worry or overwork. It's a reliable appetizer, a splendid aid to digestion and a fine functional regulator of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

All druggists sell LYKO. Get a bottle TODAY and you'll soon mean to look more like the picture of health.

Sole Manufacturers: LYKO MEDICINE COMPANY
NEW YORK KANSAS CITY, MO.

Suspicious Check is Turned in to Police

A $15 check, signed in an illegible hand, with an address of 626 E. Wilson st., was passed on the Hartmeyer & Braun meat market, 101 N. Hamilton st., Wednesday and turned over to the police yesterday. There is no such address in Madison. Both 625 and 627 E. Wilson st. are vacant, and the Northwestern railroad tracks cut between these two addresses.

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion, Gases, Sourness, Acidity

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you can't injure it with drastic drugs.

When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gases, acids or raise sour, undigested food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache, from acility, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapepsin and the stomach distress is gone.

Millions of people know the magic of Pape's Diapepsin as an antacid. They know that indigestion and disordered stomach are so needless. The relief comes quickly, no disappointment, and they cost so little too.—Adv.

NAME WOMAN HUMANE HEAD

Mrs. I. Milo Kittleson Chosen President; Doctors Defend Vivisection

Mrs. I. M. Kittleson was elected president of the Dane County Humane society at the meeting in the city library last night. For two months the society has been without a president since the resignation of L. B. Wolfenson.

Talks on animal vivisection and experimentation given rise to by a bitter article in the Country Gentleman of Oct. 16, were given by several of the professors of the university, Drs. A. S. Loevenhart, J. A. Eyster, W. J. Meek, and M. D. Stovall.

"Animal experimentation," said Dr. Loevenhart, "seldom means using the knife and when it does, the animal is treated with all the consideration and the same anaethetics as a man undergoing an operation. Then the animal is killed by an overdose. Many cities take the lives of their dogs in far more painful ways."

"If animal experimentation were not used, advance in science would stop or men would give their own lives for experimentation as in the case of seven doctors who died of yellow fever to bring about the discovery of its carrier.

"In all my work at the university," continued Dr. Loevenhart, "I have never seen one animal abused. It is a rule of the course that any one not showing consideration to animals should be dropped.

"I think you will find," he concluded, "that no class of men are more humane than the people who are trying to save lives by experimentation and that we are always ready to help any men or animals in suffering."

Coffee and Tea Prices Take Drop

Coffee prices have dropped 10 cents a pound in the retail market. A slight reduction has been made in the price of tea, but canned goods and other staples remain the same, although Madison merchants are expecting them to become cheaper soon. Sugar is now retailing at 10 and a half cents a pound.

Revenue Department Collected 5 Billion

WASHINGTON—Collection of $5,407,580,261 in taxes and efforts to control the liquor traffic under the prohibition act formed the principal work of the internal revenue bureau during the last fiscal year, Commissioner Williams said in his annual report.

Usually the people who make the most imposing show impose on others in order to make it.

AWARD PRIZE AT STOUGHTON

Mabel Tenjum Captures First in School Contest

STOUGHTON—As an incentive for better written compositions in English, and as a means of impressing upon the children their part in the "Better Schools" movement recently launched, the pupils of the sixth grades of our public schools competed for a prize by writing a composition on the subject, "How We Can Help Make Our Schools Better." The prize was won by Mabel Tenjum, of the west side school. Second and third honors were won by Selma Venden and Eric Lysne of the south side school.

Guy Sundt of this city was one of the 19 football players at the University of Wisconsin who was awarded "Ws" by the athletic board for their work on the gridiron.

H. H. Swan reports that quite a number from here will soon leave for Norway to spend the holidays with relatives in the old country. Next week a party of seven leave for New York, where they, Dec. 10th, take passage on the lines Stavangerfjord of the Norwegian-American line. In the party will be Carl Jacobson, who goes to Bergen; Anton O. Bolstad to Christiansand, Chris Dunseth, Thomas Jacobson, Nels Vielas and Staale Nuland to Stavanger, and Theodore Hoel to Christiania. Five others will go later. These are Chris F. Olson, bound for Christiania, Nels Scheue to Christiansand, Nels Rygh and Ole Urdahl to Stavanger and Carl J. Roselund, Bergen.

The brick and stonework on the front of Roe & Guelson's new movie theater building has been completed, and the building now that the staging has been removed, presents a handsome appearance.

Miss Alice Gregory and her sister, Mrs. Harmon Hoover, are expected home Saturday evening from North Springfield, Vt., where they on Saturday accompanied the remains of their cousin, Otis Graves, who was killed last week in the boiler explosion at the Marketing Co.'s plant.

Heat of Red Peppers Breaks Chest Colds

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings the quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

When heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints, relief comes at once. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub for colds, backache, sore muscles, stiff neck, lumbago, or the pains of rheumatism or neuritis, you feel the tingling heat.

In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering so you can hardly get about, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.—Adv.

CO-OP HOUSE IS DISCUSSED

Cooperative Apartment, 3 Stores, May Become Reality in Madison

A co-operative apartment house for business and professional women has become a probability for Madison, although no definite steps have yet been taken by the Business and Professional Woman's league, which is sponsoring the enterprise.

Two lots, one at 116 W. Johnson street, which could be purchased for about 9,000, and the other in the 200 block on W. Gilman street, price about $12,500, might be considered, it was thought.

Details with regard to rent, construction, finance and administration were discussed last night at a dinner of the league and details presented by a committee of three, appointed last spring to investigate possibilities, following responses to a questionnaire sent out by the league. On the committee are Miss May Cowles, Miss Lelia Bascom and Miss Grace Meyers.

In making plans for such a house, consideration was taken of the fact that most of the women in the league work for moderate salaries, and that the plan must therefore be made as attractive an investment as possible.

FEELS HAPPY LIKE BOY NOW HE DECLARES

Yardmaster Ellen Tells of Wonderful Change Since Taking Tanlac

Still another well known Minnesota railroad man testifies to the remarkable merits of Tanlac. This time it is A. Ellen, residing at 139 West Winifred street, St. Paul, yardmaster in St. Paul for the Chicago and Milwaukee Railway Co. Mr. Ellen said:

"I just feel happy like a boy over the way Tanlac has straightened me up and rid me of my troubles. For fully a year before I got Tanlac I was in a mighty poor state of health. My digestion was so bad I couldn't eat a thing but what caused the sharpest kind of cramping pains and bloated me up with gas something awful. There were certain things I never dared touch, in fact, it seemed like the very thought of them made me sick at my stomach.

"My kidneys bothered me constantly, and I couldn't stoop over and straighten up without feeling like my back would break in two. I got weak and run down and had that tired feeling all the time.

"That was the fix I was in when I got a bottle of Tanlac, and I began to feel better almost as soon as I started taking it. That bottle did me so much good I got another and, sir, it's little short of miraculous the way the medicine has made a clean sweep of all my troubles. My stomach and kidneys are now in fine condition and I never have a pain of any kind. In fact, I couldn't ask to be in better health than I am now."

Tanlac is sold in Madison by the Luckey Pharmacies, and in Maromanie by Geo. A. Shields, in Mt. Horeb by C. C. Robertshaw, in Cambridge by Ole Bilstad, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

The marriage of Miss Laurine Trueb of this city and Edward H. Lehr of Middleton is to take place the latter part of this month.

Such Cleancut Tones Increase Your Enjoyment

THE CHENEY REPRODUCER

Music gives the truest pleasure when you can forget your surroundings, forget the presence of any instrument, and lose yourself in the enchantment of beautiful harmony.

But to be beautiful, harmonies must be free from the harsh, scratching sound of needle on record. So long as records are made as they are today, there is necessarily a slight friction. Since this cannot be prevented, it must be muted. It is this problem which is solved by the principles of THE CHENEY reproducer.

Let us show you how THE CHENEY's tone adjuster, reproducer, tone arm, acoustic throat, orchestral chambers and violin resonator also increase the charm of its music. If you cannot call, send the coupon for the interesting CHENEY booklet.

How Unmusical Noises are Muted

The concentric rings make it possible to use a diaphragm remarkably sensitive to musical sound waves without danger of false vibrations. Thus "blast" is avoided and the scratchy sound of the needle is muted.

Please send me without obligation your beautifully illustrated 32-page CHENEY booklet

To Prevent Grip and Colds

Three Rules You Should Observe

(1) Sleep 8 hours—with windows wide open
(2) Eat wisely—exercise regularly—don't worry
(3) Avoid crowds and persons having colds

Local Epidemic of Colds

The rules given above, recommended by the New York City Board of Health, are guides to good health at all times. Particularly should they be followed just now, when grip and colds are almost an epidemic in Madison.

Keep the Air Passages Healthy

Grip and cold germs are breathed in. If the system is in good condition and the membrane or lining of the air passages is in healthy condition these germs are thrown off.

A good plan is to melt a little Vicks VapoRub in a spoon, night and morning, and inhale the vapors, also apply a little up the nostrils several times a day, especially just before being exposed to crowds.

Treat All Colds Promptly

Above all, keep free from colds. As colds irritate the lining of the air passages and make them real breeding grounds for germs. Prompt use of Vicks VapoRub aids in preventing colds. For head colds, sore throat or hoarseness rub Vicks well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. For deep chest colds, severe sore throat or bronchitis, hot wet towels should first be applied to the throat, chest and back between the shoulder blades, to open the pores. Then Vicks should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red—spread on thickly and covered with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck, so the vapors released by the body heat may be freely inhaled.

These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the lungs and air passages. At the same time Vicks is absorbed thru and stimulates the skin, thus aiding to relieve the congestion within.

Use of External Treatments for Colds Increasing

Vicks VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist who found how to combine in salve form the standard time-tested remedies, Camphor — Menthol — Eucalyptus—Thyme, etc.— so that when the salve is applied to the body heat these ingredients are liberated in the form of vapors.

Vicks is particularly recommended for children's croup or colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used freely and often without the slightest harmful effects.

The best evidence of the value of Vicks is the steadily increasing number of people who have been converted to the use of this "outside" treatment.

Beginning with the customers of a small retail drug store, the use of Vicks has grown year by year—state by state—until now more than 17 million jars are used annually.

NOTE—Last winter druggists could not get Vicks—the manufacturers were unable to fill the demand from their home territory. Now, however, wholesalers have ample stocks and local druggists can supply Vicks in all three sizes —30c, 60c and $1.20.—Adv.

BILLY WHISKERS

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

That is what Mr. Treat promised the boys when they brought the good news about the auto.

"Now, boys, the card says that the machinist who is to deliver the automobile will probably arrive tomorrow afternoon. I think we'll have to make it a holiday, so you will be on hand when it comes."

"Now, father," remonstrated Mrs. Treat quickly, 'that's is unwise. They'd much better be in school."

"Tut, tut, mother! Boys must have some good times, I think."

"Oh father, do let us!" petitioned the boys, and a cherry nod satisfied them that the victory was theirs.

Very little indeed was accomplished by the Treat boys the next morning, and kind Miss Clinton, their teacher, was at a loss for an explanation of the wriggling, twisting and manifest uneasiness possessing them.

Tom was detected in the act of attempting to communicate with Harry, the note was confiscated by Miss Clinton, and Tom himself straightway sent to the platform, where he whiled away the dreary, lagging moments by driving an imaginary automobile over the hills at a terrific speed, much to the envy of his schoolmates.

"I'll ask everyone of 'em to ride, except Miss Clinton," he pondered, planning revenge for his present predicament. "And then I guess she'll wish she hadn't punished me."

Noon came at last, as all noons do, and then the note was presented to Miss Clinton by little Dick, though by this time it was very much the worse for frequent fingering. The little fellow had not been able to keep his hands off the precious thing for longer than five minutes at a time. First he had to make sure that it really was in his pocket. Then again he took just one peep inside to reassure himself that it asked that he and his brothers be excused from the afternoon session. Each time he took it out, he patted it lovingly, and therefore it bore many a print of chubby and very smudgy finger tips.

Miss Clinton's consent was readily given, for rules in the country districts are not so iron-clad as in the more crowded city schools, and away hastened the boys for the noonday meal at home.

It proved to be a rather tempestuous one, and Mrs. Treat was glad indeed when chairs were pushed back from the board and the restive group betook themselves to the wide, shady veranda. It commanded a splendid view of the road toward Springfield, for it mounted a gradual ascent of a mile or more before it scurried over and down again in its eagerness to reach the city.

"I wonder what Billy will do when he sees the machine," piped up little Dick, as they settled themselves comfortably in hammock and in spacious, comfortable porch chairs.

(They did not have to wait long to see what Billy would do.)

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a woman of 45 and I have lived a very unhappy married life for 25 years. My husband is a brute in human form, although quite industrious in his work as a railroad man. He is so heartless and selfish that he has no equal. He seldom uses any language to me or the children except the most vulgar, low and inhuman that he can think of.

I have stood abuse and insults from him and his people that are unbelievable. I have two noble, handsome sons. The elder is 23 and the other is 21. Both left me and their home because of their father's brutal actions toward me and themselves.

I also have one daughter 19 years old, a perfect lady and one that should be a pride to any decent parent's heart. She is that to me, but it is different with her father. He made it hard for her from childhood and now he seldom speaks a kind word to her. He begrudges her everything she wears. She gets so discouraged at times that she tells me she will be compelled to leave home.

My little girl and I are nervous wrecks because of my husband's abuse. My husband gets good wages and besides we stand good financially. There is no reason for making her leave home. Besides, she and I both work hard. She earns most of her clothes teaching music and I keep four good dairy cows and take care of them myself and sell butter and milk. My husband considers that nothing when most of it goes for our clothes.

We can never enjoy company for fear that he will insult them. As we live on the skirts of a small town it is very seldom that someone does stray our way. Our friends all know my husband's ways and would rather keep out of his way.

I can look for nothing else from him for myself, as I married him against my parents' will, but to think that my poor children have to suffer also! When any parents object to their daughter marrying a certain man they surely know why, as my parents did. It is a pity that young girls can't understand.

Please tell me if there is some way to make my burden easier.

TROUBLED MOTHER.

If your daughter gets a position in town, I believe you will find your burden easier. Contact with the business world will be good for her. It will interest her and get her away from the unpleasant atmosphere of her home. Doubtless it will please her father, too, to know that she is working at something that will give her sufficient income to support herself.

I do not think it should be necessary for her to leave home. In case her father does not soften toward her, if she does work, she ought to be allowed to go to live where she will have peace and harmony.

It is no wonder you and she are nervous wrecks since you live under constant abuse. To change your husband's nature is realy a hopeless task after so many years. The only thing for you to do is to study his moods and try not to irritate him. Probably you have ample cause for divorce, but I judge from your letter you are not considering that step. Tact is your only salvation. Your husband, as well as every human being, has some good traits.

ROUNDY RAZZBERRIES

Now with Gov. Blaine going into office, let's hope he shakes up the boxing commission some.

It would be the greatest boost in the game to have Harry Sauthoff, the attorney, or Sam Woldenburg appointed.

Both men have followed the game for years; see all boxers of any note, always at the ringside in Milwaukee, at all big fights for the last decade.

They know the game from A to Z. Both men are qualified for the position; they are really too true blue sportsmen, not sports.

Madison is deserving of a man appointed as a commissioner, not an inspector, and these two men are the ones to pick from.

I have seen some stuff pulled by some commissioners at the Lakeside pavilion that was not good for the game. I heard Bob Boyd telling one of the men to cut out the language or get out of the building.

This column is open to the good of the fans and all sports that is done in a clean manner by clean men.

In the Boyd boys we have two fellows that are on the square and gentlemen at all times and before the winter is over will show you some high class mitt slingers.

Now they have got a card at Turner hall, Dec. 13, that looks good. They have put on some sluggers this time for the fans, as clever boxing don't seem to please here.

Now these boxers coming out here should be told to get in that ring to fight, not to give a tango dance. It is up to the referee to make those boys travel.

And Boyd's will much rather see them mix at all times than Bunny Hug as Ike Bernstine tells his fighters to do. Boyd pays them money to fight, not to dance.

Joe Steinhauer, the popular referee, is vested with the power to make these battlers fight and fight from now on they will have to do, to get the fans to patronize the game.

Tony Dennis and Schaffer, the windup, sure is a classy bout. I have seen both boys travel. Dennis is a regular semi-windup at all big fights at Milwaukee.

And some fans saw poor Willie Green who fought here twice. He fought Chancey at Feneway ball park, Boston, before 9,000 people to a draw last month. Chancey has fought Kilbane, Dundee, Pal Moore.

Ohio State Declines to Play Harvard Game

COLUMBUS, O.—Ohio State, Thursday night, declined the offer of Harvard for a football game to be played between the two institutions at Cambridge in 1921.

Members of the athletic board explained that this step was taken because Harvard refused to play in Columbus in 1922, the request for the game received on Thursday stating that faculty rulings prevented scheduling of the contest.

BIG TEN WILL REMAIN INTACT

Conference Officials Scoff Rumors Four Schools Will be Dropped

CHICAGO—Officals of the Big Ten conference here on Thursday ridiculed reports from Urbana that four colleges might be dropped from membership because of weak football teams.

The annual meeting of the Big Ten will be held here next Saturday and although there may be some propaganda in favor of eliminating one or two of the colleges the opinion was that it would make little headway.

Dispatches from Urbana quoted sources there as saying they favored dropping Iowa, Indiana, Purdue and Northwestern because these colleges failed to produce good football teams.

It was pointed out here that last year Iowa and Indiana had strong football teams. Both have shown steady improvement in recent seasons. Northwestern has a large following and is one of the best paying schools in the conference. Purdue is the only college which has not shown up well and on which an attack might be made.

However, the feeling among persons in touch with the collegiate athletics here was that next year would see no change in the conference makeup.

DOLPHIN CLUB OFFERS FREE SWIM EVENTS

Public Invited to Second Annual Exhibition in Lathrop, Dec. 9

"Who was the girl that Wisconsin sent to Lake Geneva last summer that had the marvelous breast stroke?" was the question asked by a Chicago co-ed at the luncheon at Ida Noyes gymnasium in honor of Wisconsin W. A. A. girls the noon of the Wisconsin-Chicago football game.

The public will be given the opportunity of seeing this same swimmer and many others of equal fame when Dolphin club gives its second annual exhibition in the Lathrop pool, Thursday, December 9, at 8 o'clock. Final arrangements were completed at the meeting in the pool last evening, and the entire meet promises to be one of exceptional merit and interest.

Each one of the 44 members of Dolphin club will participate in the exhibition, and the program will be opened with a seal dive into the pool by everyone, followed by a snake dance in the water ending by spelling out the word "Dolphin". Other events in the program will consist of form swimming, races, life saving, speed swimming, fancy strokes, and fancy dives.

Special attention will be given to the decorating of the pool. The exhibition is open to everyone, but men who wish to go are requested to get tickets from some member of the club. There is no charge for admission.

Joe Stecher Begins Training for Lewis

JACK SHARKEY IS GIVEN K. O. BY JOE LYNCH

Man Who Defeated Jimmy Wilde Gets Knockout From Milwaukee Bantamweight

NEW YORK—Joe Lynch, west side bantamweight, knocked out Jack Sharkey, his sectional rival, Thursday night in the 15th round of a hair- raising bout before a crowd of 12,000 wildly enthusiastic spectators at Madison Square Garden. The finish of the bout came 43 seconds after the bell had sent the midget pair on the last round of their bout. A succession of rights and lefts dealt out by Lynch battered Sharkey to the door of the ring in the little Italian's corner, where Referee Patsy Haley counted out the fallen boxer.

Twice before the finish of the bout Sharkey had been sent crashing to the canvas. In the 14th session, with Lynch fighting like fury to score decisively, the little Italian went down from the impact of a crushing right cross, which kept Sharkey on the floor for a count of nine. Arising, Sharkey was able to protect himself effectively with hands crossed in front of his jaw. Lynch tried unsuccessfully to battle his way past the defense, but he did not have the strength.

Lynch resumed his persistent aggression with the start of the 15th round and for a time Sharkey, recovered partly from the effects of the previous mauling, exchanged blows in rapid exchanges. A left hook to Sharkey's jaw, followed with a terrific right smash, sent Sharkey crumpling against the ropes in the latter's corner before the round had gone half a minute. Like a tiger Lynch jumped in to continue the assault, but almost before the west side Irishman could land a blow Sharkey crumpled to the floor.

Boston Combine to Purchase Red Sox

BOSTON—Purchase of the Boston American league baseball club will be sought by local interests. Joseph F. Conway, a former president of the New England Amateur Athletic union, said on Thursday that financial men of the city were prepared to open negotiations with H. F. Frazee, the present owner. If consummated the deal probably would result in an attempt to bring back to playing management of the Red Sox, William F. Carrigan, now a banker at Lewiston, Me., who led the tea mto world series honors in 1915 and 1916.

Conway would be president of the club under the proposed plan for changing ownership, and associated with him would be Maj. Frank Cavanaugh, the Boston college football coach.

The price on the Red Sox club his been set by Frazee at upward of $1,000,000.

Gipp Passes Crisis; Recovery is Probable

NOTRE DAME, Ind.—With George Gipp, the team's star, lying critically ill with pneumonia, plans for post-season games in the far west have been abandoned by Notre Dam. Gipp, according to advice of attending physicians, may remain in a critical condition for a week or more. Hope for his recovery had been abandoned last night, but today physicians thought he had passed the crisis.

An invitation to play Georgia Tech at Atlanta next season was received today, and the proposal is being given consideration by athletic officials.

FACULTY ASKED TO AID IN REMEDYING SEAT SALE TROUBLE

That the athletic department had violated its contract with coupon book holders and had given preference to outsiders in the sale of football tickets this fall was the substance of the report submitted to the student senate Wednesday night by the committee which had been instructed to investigate the situation. The same committee has been asked to petition the faculty committee on student life and interest to take steps toward remedying the difficulty which caused so much student criticism this fall.

The committee was also instructed to petition the faculty committee to investigate the illegal scalping of tickets which was so sommon this year and to investigate methods used in other schools to eliminate scalping.

The problem of thievery in the university was taken up, and the senate recommends that the faculty provide some means by which coats can be kept in class rooms, since the private detective and the enlarged janitor plan have proved ineffective.

A committee was appointed by the senate to frame a petition to the Board of Regents asking for larger dormitories than those proposed. The proposed dormitories make provision for one dormitory for men with a capacity of 150, which is not considered large enough for the present need.

Harvard Students Ascribe Strange Power to Horween

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Superstitious Harvard students who seek to propitiate the fates in advance of examinations have found a new source of good omen in Arnold Horween, captain of the Crimson football team.

The fact that the Harvard leader in the toss of coins for choice of strategy in football games called the turn in every contest and thereby gained the opening advantage in a season of play that included no defeats has caused the undergraduate body to regard him as the archpriest of Kismet. As a result, students on the eve of examinations ask for a shake of his hand, rub him on the back or seek his good wishes in the tilt against the academic bugaboo.

CANADA AFTER DEMPSEY BOUT

Rickard Gets Offer From Ottowa Sportsmen to Hold Title Match Across Border

NEW YORK—An offer of a site for the holding of the Dempsey-Carpentier heavyweight championship fight in Canada was received today by Promoter Tex Rickard.

The proposition, from a syndicate of wealthy Ottawa sportsmen, suggested holding the contest at Hull, just across the river from Ottawa, during June. It was stated that $250,000 was available as a guaranty and Rickard was requested to meet and discuss the matter with a representative of the Canadian syndicate.

Rickard said he would arrange for a conference in the near future but that no definite plans has been made for staging the international titular battle at any particular place.

Fight Articles Include Canada

Under the contract signed by the promoter and the two pugilists the bout can be held anywhere in the United States, Canada, Mexico, or Cuba, providing the principals are given sufficient notice of the site to arrange for proper training facilities.

It again was intimated today by the chief promoter that in case it was found inadvisable to hold the contest in or near New York City the match would in all probability be staged in London, where Carpentier is a popular pugilistic idol and a great drawing card.

Dempsey Willing to Go Abroad

When it was pointed out to Rickard that the existing contract did not cover a ring encounter in Europe he stated that both Manager Kearns and Champion Dempsey had agreed to sign a new contract.

Should the emergency arise it is quite likely that instead of Dempsey receiving $300,000 and Carpentier $200,000 the boxers will agree to battle for a percentage of the gate receipts, which are estimated as likely to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars with the fight staged in London.

Carney Will Coach Cornell Ball Team

WHEAT PRICES TAKE SETBACK

Pause in Export Demand Causes Slump in Market

CHICAGO—Evidence of a pause in export demand tended today to bring about setbacks in the price of wheat. It was pointed out that foreign governments have pursued the policy of buying wheat only when prices were not in conformity with the amount of export business already done or with the amount of milling demand yet to come. Opening prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1¼ cents lower with Dec. 1.68½ to 1.69 and March 1.64 to 1.64½ were followed by a decided rally, but then by a material decline all around.

Subsequently, large eastern offerings were absorbed by commission houses and elevator interests. Then Shorts tried to cover and prices scored something of an advance. The close was unsettled ⅛c net lower to 1¼c higher, with Dec. 1.70¾ to 1.70½, and March 1.64¾ to 1.65.

Corn.

Corn sagged with wheat. After opening unchanged to 1¼c including May at 75¾ to 76 cents, the market recovered somewhat, and soon became weak, for all deliveries.

Despite liberal profit-taking on the part of recent buyers the market tended upward with wheat at the last. Prices closed firm, ¼c net lower to ⅝c higher, with May 75¼ to 75⅝.

Oats.

Oats were governed by the action of other cereals, starting unchanged to ⅛c higher, May 51 to 51¼ but then undergoing a general down-turn.

Provisions.

Lower quotations on hogs together with weakness of grain carried provisions down grade.

RAILS FEATURE STOCK MARKET

Mexican Oils Also Lead Higher Trend in Prices

NEW YORK—Rails and the Mexican oils made the most substantial contributions to the higher trend of prices in the early stages of today's market. Reading and Mexican Petroleum rose 1 and 1½ points, respectively, with fractional advances in the trans-continentals including Southern Pacific. Contrary to their recent course, European oils were heavy, Royal Dutch losing 1¼ points. Shippings and the leather and paper specialties also reacted, but steels, equipments and motors were irregular at nominal gains and losses.

Aside from the weakness of Willys-Overland common and preferred, the market made further upward strides later, Mexican petroleum succeeding Reading as the strongest feature. The closing was firm.

Speaking Of Presents

The Capital Times Has Suggestion to Make Concerning Gift To Be Made

THIS is the season for picking out Christmas presents.

The Christmas buyer has his problems. He feels that there is nothing new under the sun. He wants something "just a little different" and there doesn't seem to be anything "different."

The Capital Times has a suggestion to make.

Do you want to give a Christmas present that will remain a daily present and reminder throughout the coming year? A book? is anything more thrilling and full of adventure than the daily recital of the happenings of the world, the nation, the state and city?

How about a year's subscription to The Capital Times for a Christmas present for some friend? It isn't a present that will be forgotten in a week or ten days. It will be going to your friend through the coming year,---rain or shine, war or peace, or whatever other condition may arise.

Send in a year's subscription for The Capital Times as a present for some friend. We will start the subscription whenever it is desired.

A NORTH DAKOTA BOOMERANG

PUNISHMENT swift and crushing, has fallen upon the reactionary forces who put through an amendment to cripple the Bank of North Dakota, and thus to injure the Nonpartisan League.

Fourteen private banks, owned in most instances by enemies of the Nonpartisan League, failed and closed their doors within three weeks after the law was amended so that communities hostile to the League could withdraw their public funds from the Bank of North Dakota.

Under the law as originally drafted by the League all taxes collected for country, school and municipal purposes were required to be deposited in the Bank of North Dakota. Under this system the Bank had accumulated a reserve fund which varied from $12,000,000 to $35,000,000.

This public money was in turn distributed by the central public bank among the various other banking institutions of the State, the Bank of North Dakota exercising a control within the State comparable with that of the Federal Reserve System within the nation.

Of this system the beneficiaries were the common people of the State---chiefly farmers---whose credit needs were met by shifting the reserve funds about as the different districts had pressing need of them.

Four successive crop failures, due to drought and grasshoppers, have afflicted that part of North Dakota which lies west of the Missouri River. To carry the farmers through from year to year the local banks have extended repeated credits against the time when fortune should smile and the farmers become solvent.

This year of 1920 brought the long-delayed good crop. War-time prices for farm products were falling, but there was still a chance that the trans-Missouri farmers would be able to market their produce, pay their debts and make a fresh start.

That prospect was completely shattered when the price for farm products dropped to a figure far below the cost of planting and harvesting. Railroad freight rates jumped up about the same time to the exorbitant Cummins-Esch level, cutting further into the farmer's revenue.

Farmers refused to sell their crops at the ruinous figure, and local banks were unable to collect their accumulated loans. The Bank of North Dakota could have shifted its reserve deposits to the threatened private banks and thus saved the situation, but for one thing.

Enemies of the Nonpartisan League had initiated a measure to amend the banking law and strike at the Bank of North Dakota by allowing hostile local communities to withdraw their public funds. At the election of November 2 that amendment was adopted.

Immediately the Bank of North Dakota was threatened with the withdrawal of an unknowable proportion of its reserve. It did not dare distribute from that reserve the cash which would enable local private banks to renew their credits to the farmers. The farmers refused to sell at a loss. The small banks could neither collect their loans nor borrow afresh from the Bank of North Dakota. They could only put up the shutters and go out of business.

Fourteen ruined banks, their depositors and their surrounding communities have received a stinging lesson in the value of the Bank of North Dakota. What the League speakers could not fully persuade them of they have been taught by the enemies of the League.

Duplication of work by the government departments cost the people $360,000,000 during 1919, according to Franklin L. Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt also claims that congress has been unwilling for political reasons to reorganize the departments in the interest of efficiency.

It is useless to inquire which political party is responsible. Reorganization would meet with intense opposition of politicians of both parties, some of whose proteges would be thrown out of jobs.

It is time for the people to clean out this system.---Merrill Herald.

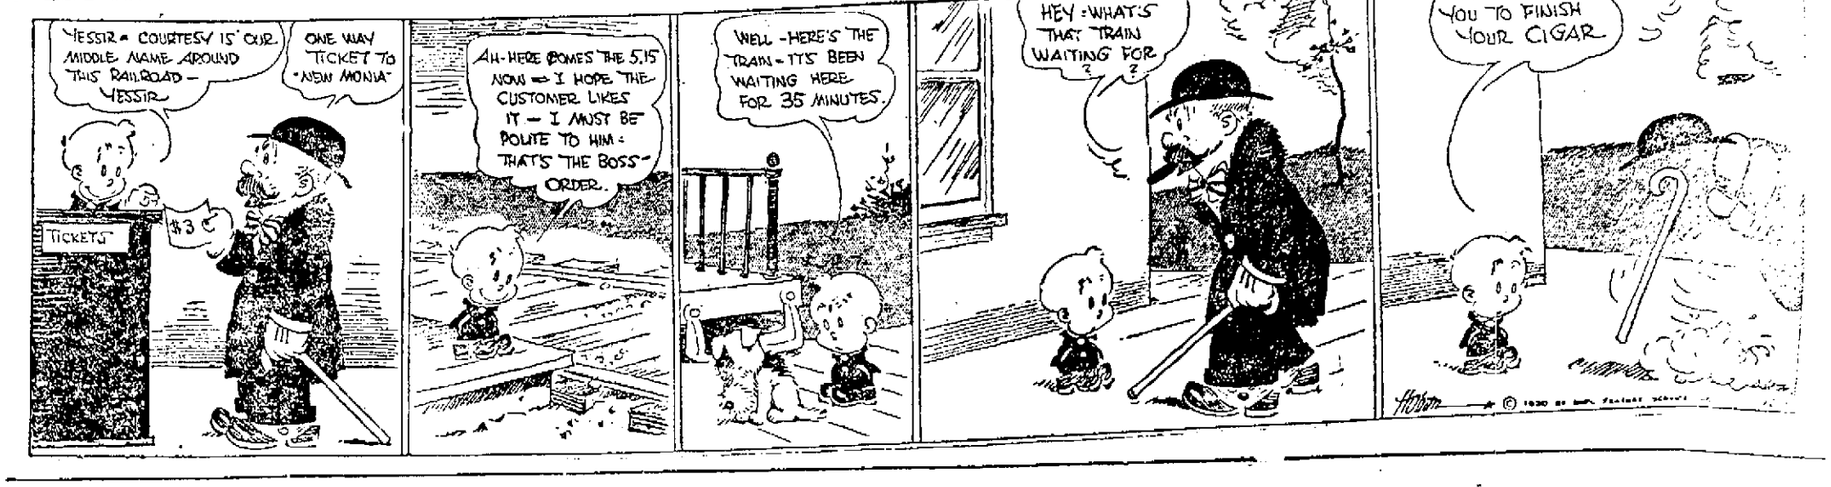

WAR WITH ENGLAND

George Bernard Shaw believes war is coming between England and America. He says:

"War between England and America is therefore inevitable.

"Since the war it has been clear to every one with any diplomatic flair that the United States must gravitate toward an alliance with Germany—war between an alliance of the centralized French republic with the British Empire against an alliance of federated republics of the United States with those of Central Europe."

SERVING OUR COUNTRY

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

It has long been one of our hobbies that there should be enacted a national law requiring every able-bodied man and woman at a suitable age to give one year's service to the country in some kind of physical work under strict discipline and the best possible sanitary conditions. There should be regular hours for work, for eating, for gymnastics and for rest, and all rules should be strictly enforced. For say one hour each day these men and women should receive suitable instruction to increase their efficiency and happiness in the battle of life before them.

This industrial army should be furnished with food, clothing, shelter and working implements, but receive only nominal pay, say not to exceed 50 cents per day. The physical, intellectual and moral benefits gained in this service would be of far greater value than any compensation in money.

Nor would there be any objection to requiring the men to drill a few hours a week and so learn to understand military commands and become trained in the handling of arms in case the country should ever need them for war.

There is plenty of public work to be done for both the men and the women. We may mention road-building, tree-planting, irrigation and swamp draining for men; nursing, cooking, gardening, fruit-raising, dairying and many other occupations stand ready for women.

In order to make this service absolutely democratic and to prevent rich men's sons and daughters from being favored by snap jobs, as too frequently happened in our late war, we would have this army managed and superintended entirely by men and women outside of the regular service. This would put the sons and daughters of the rich and poor on the same level in the work to be done.

It would seem that between 20 and 25 years would be the right age for such service, allowing the man or woman the choice of the year, so as to interfere as little as possible with their own private plans in school or out of school.

This army of workers would from year to year aid immensely in the development of the country's natural resources and thus increase the wealth of the nation. The service should help wonderfully in making us as a nation and as individuals more healthy, more efficient and democratic and peaceloving.

While this program, if adopted, would add annually vast amounts to the wealth and efficiency both of the nation and of the individual, the military service is, as all must see, a tremendous drain on both.

Military service means instruction and training for the killing of our fellow-men and wholesale destruction of property. The program we are advocating means the lengthening of human life, an increase of happiness and the conservation and production of national wealth.

Who can calculate the millions that would be added to the assets of the United States every year by this army of workers? And who is able to estimate the gain in personal health, vigor and efficiency of the otherwise idle individuals so employed? The devil would in fact be driven out from his workshop of the idle, who now look only for amusements to kill time.

Where is the noble-minded young American who would not cheerfully give one year's service to this "sweet land of liberty" in order to make it still more sweet?

The citizens of the United States should unite and present a solid front against all militarists and advocates of vast expenditures for army and navy.

It would seem that the program here outlined, the details of which can easily be worked out, need only be stated to secure the universal approval of all patriotic and progressive citizens.

LA CROSSE ENGINEERING CHIEF GUILTY OF FRAUD

LA CROSSE, Wis.—A. M. Castle, head of the defunct Castle Engineering Co., who was brought back from Canada on a charge of obtaining loans aggregating $23,000 under false pretenses by offering as securities forged bills of lading and other paper, was found guilty by a jury in circuit court here today. He will be sentenced later.

Training will do much for a man but it will not teach him to look for the towel before filling his eyes with soap.

At The Theaters

AT THE FULLER.

In Madison there will soon be a new, warm glow of kindliness and a resurrected faith in human nature. Fiske O'Hara will do it, Fiske O'Hara in his latest success "Springtime in Mayo," which comes to the Fuller Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 9, 10, 11, with a matinee Saturday, under the direction of Augustus Pitou Inc. Enthusiastic audiences are everywhere crowding the theater and are said to applaud with persistent crescendo, both because they wish to show tribute to America's favorite actor-singer and his clever play, and because they derive from the presence of the characters on the stage a quiet joy and inspiration, which is too far from common in these days of spurious drama.

AT THE GRAND

Patrons of the Grand theatre found Eugene O'Brien, in "His Wife's Money," much to their liking when it was shown for the first time yesterday. The picture will continue as the attraction for the ensuing period ending Saturday.

"His Wife's Money" has a story which is absorbingly interesting. It sends everyone who sees it out of the theatre wondering what he would have done under the same circumstances. The production is adequate, and Mr. O'Brien and Zena Keefe, as Richard Flint and Marion Philips, respectively, give splendid performances.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

Ed Healy and Allen Cross with their sincere efforts to please are easily the best entertainers on the Orpheum program. They have a variety of songs that range from war verses to lullabies and the boys do their best to please with them. A troupe of trained dancers in a remarkable series of difficult steps is offered in the last act. W. Horlick and the Sarampa sisters make these intricate movements seem simple but the fine things they offer should increase their reputation. Wallace Galvin revives the egg and card tricks that are so much enjoyed by everyone and his parlor entertainment seems inexhaustable. The small boy assistant is a great help by draping eggs all over the stage. Rhinehart and Duff in a team of attractive Dixie misses who are well versed in vigorous songs and verses that earn them well measured applause. "Mrs. Wellington's Surprise" is a convincing argument that one act playlets that consist of any plot or tangible form worthy of production are very scarce. Teschow's cats start the performance with acrobatics, mathematics and etc.

AT THE STRAND

All the red-blooded adventure that Jack London put into his famous novel, "The Sea Wolf," has been retained in the screen version, which is now showing at the Strand Theatre. In addition, the spectacular scenes which feature the story have been portrayed on the screen with a startling vividness that the printed page could never hope to attain.

Noah Beery makes an ideal "Wolf," both physically and by reason of his considerable talent as an actor. Tom Forman, Mabel Julienne Scott, and Raymond Hatton are also in the cast. The picture is a George Melford production and a Paramount Artcraft.

On The Side

THE ANTI-MORTEM STATEMENT OF A WISE MAN.

I've said and done an awful lot,
And most of it was a mistake.
Unsay? Undo? Well, guess not!
What difference did it make!

I milled the nations through my sieve,
And stung them with my lyric scorn;
Repentant then, I cried; "Forgive!"
They never knew that I was born.

"Never knocks, always boosts, is the motto of this paper," says the Filly (Neb.) Spotlight, and goes on to relate that "while we were hanging the motto Todd Wicks came and pushed the stepladder from under us. That was a fine act. We got up and gave Todd a swift, hard kick. That was a treat."

CITY WIT AND COUNTRY WIT.

Did you ever notice the difference between city humor and country humor? Country humor deals with concrete objects. City humor deals with intangible abstractions, comparisons, suggestions, inuendos.

"A slam over a cemetery in Jersey says, 'This is a one-way drive.' That's a city joke (from the Evening Post).

City jokes are like this, because city men are readers. They think in terms of printed sentences.

When a child, drinking milk, gags and coughs, the farmer says, "Did you choke on a bone in the milk?"

They say that a horse-drawn wagon is driven by a "hay motor."

They call oleo "bull butter" because it is made from the fat of steers instead of the milk of cows.

Their phrase to describe eagerness is "clearing to go," because a willing horse rears and pulls at the reins in its eagerness to start.

"John, you've turned into a gay looking man. A few years back a feller couldn't hardly get a smile past you in the road." That's plainly a country joke.

A city man says, "I'm so tired that I'd trade the Woolworth tower for a dressing gown, slippers and hot water bag."

The country man says, "I'm so tired that I'd give a farm for a chance to throw off the harness and roll on the grass." That's what the horse does at the end of the day.

The farmer's remark is as witty as the town man's. But they cannot understand each other's humor, because they are not familiar with each other's habits.

The aim of this column is to present both town humor and country humor in an effort to get a smile out of as many people as possible.
